PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1

Special Condition #18: You shall undergo a substance abuse evaluation and, if indicated by a licensed/certified treatment provider, enter into and successfully complete an approved substance abuse treatment program, which could include inpatient treatment and aftercare. You shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability to pay. You shall allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising officer and treatment provider.

Supporting Evidence: Dustin Hoyle missed his urinalysis tests on March 8 and 22, April 23, 24 and 30, May 15 and 22, June 4 and July 9, 2012. Mr. Hoyle's schedule for attending his outpatient groups has been irregular, as the treatment provider has tried to accommodate his work schedule, and allowed him to miss some sessions with the understanding that he would make them up. According to the offender, his employer has not been understanding about missing work because of his treatment sessions. On June 6, 2012, Mr. Hoyle was informed by the undersigned officer that if he missed one more group treatment session, a violation report would be sent to the Court. He then failed to attend treatment on July 9, 2012.

Special Condition #19: You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: Dustin Hoyle had a positive urinalysis test for hydrocodone and oxycodone on June 26, 2012. The urinalysis test given on this date was confirmed by the laboratory on July 11, 2012. On July 13, 2012, Mr. Hoyle admitted to the U.S. Probation Office that he had a relapse when a friend came to the residence where he was living.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a summons requiring the defendant to appear to answer to the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
